The RUFF REVUE

Group performances are crowd-pleasers.

The Ruff Revue was founded by Diane Baker and Teri Beeman, two instructors from Diamonds in the Ruff Dog Training School, to share their passion for canine musical freestyle and to promote the human-animal bond.

The Ruff Revue has performed at various venues, including Extended Care Facilities, Retirement Communities, Hospitals, Schools, Group Homes, and Community and Fund-Raising Events.

Interested in a Ruff Revue performance for your facility or event?

The Ruff Revue would love to perform for you!

We work year-round to develop new and seasonal programs.

Performances are free of charge and can be tailored to your audience or event.

Diane Baker and Olie "WOW" the audience.

In addition to an always entertaining demonstration of canine musical freestyle, Ruff Revue performances include "meet & greet" time for audience members to interact with the Revue team members.

The Ruff Revue team competes at a Freestyle Competition in Corvallis, OR.
